

Jean Marie Theil, President

Belonger Corporation

Mrs. Thiel owns and operates a specialty trades Mechanical Contracting Company including all HVAC/R aptitudes, waste water, plumbing, as well as offers Construction Management, Facility Management, and Energy Based Performance Contracting. She has 30 years of experience in the construction and services industry, specializing in federal and DOD relations, joint venturing and mentoring.

Jean has been recognized as the “first” formally sanctioned 8a Mentor-Protégé for the federal government in the state of Wisconsin. She has participated in numerous round tables and expert panel sessions pertaining to Women and Minority Small Business advocacy and outreach, such as the President Obama Small Business Round Table summit of 2009, SBA Outreach events, and Tribal/Native Workshops.

Jean is the acting Board Member of the American Indian Chamber of Commerce, American Indian Construction Trade Counsel, The Business Council, {affiliate Milwaukee Metropolitan Chamber Commerce}, Plumbing Mechanical Contractors Association, Ethnically Diverse Business Coalition, Emerging Construction Business Incubator, Wisconsin Procurement Institute, and WI-JATC (Joint Apprenticeship Training Committee). She is also the recipient of several state, federal, and national recognitions.